

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Less than 100 of the 603 women voters in Bennington have taken the freeman's oath.

Miss Berenice R. Tuttle will be a candidate for the office of school commissioner at the next election in Rutland.

Guy O'Neil, formerly of Morrisville and now with the American troops in France, is in a hospital with seven wounds.

A wild cat in the henhouse of Carl Stevens in Island Pond last week killed seven hens and injured several others before it was killed.

Rev. Peter Black, for four years pastor of the St. Johnsbury Methodist church, died recently in a Boston hospital. He was pastor of the Newtonville, Mass., Methodist church at the time of his death. Five from the St. Johnsbury church attended the funeral today in Newtonville. He was born in Scotland and the St. Johnsbury pastorate was his second in this country.

When Mr. and Mrs. Frank Draper moved from Morrisville to Waterbury into a meal bag. By its struggles the cat worked its way off the load and into the snow, where the bag and its contents remained buried until the slight thaw of last week brought the bag into view and it was found by Daniel Draper, who was driving along the road. The cat was found alive, after being confined in the bag and buried for 13 days, being uninjured except for a frozen ear.

Mrs. Charles H. Brown, who died in Derby, June 6, was a native of Watford, where she was born Jan. 18, 1861. Jennie, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Allen. For 34 years she resided at White River Junction. She had been ill for some time with a cancer, which an operation at the Mary Hitchcock hospital in Hanover, N. H., failed to relieve. Burial was in White River Junction. She is survived by her husband, C. H. Brown; a son, Robert A. Brown of White River Junction, and a brother, Henry Allen of Randolph.

DEATH OF VETERAN.

Isaiah C. Streeter, Aged 75, Died at Brattleboro.

Brattleboro, Feb. 10.—Isaiah C. Streeter, 75, former senior vice-commander of the Sedgwick post, G. A. R., died in his home on Main street yesterday, having been confined to his home since early in January. Mr. Streeter had been in ill health for several years.

Mr. Streeter was born in North Hinsdale, N. H., Oct. 11, 1843, one of the ten children of Levi and Vashti (Hibbard) Streeter. His father lived to be 100 years, six months and ten days old. Mr. Streeter remained on the farm in North Hinsdale until he went to Hinsdale and enlisted Sept. 2, 1863, being not quite 20 years old. He was assigned to Company A, 14th New Hampshire regiment, and that with other companies of the regiment mobilized at Concord and from there were sent to Washington, where they went into their first engagement at Winchester, Fisher's Hill and Cedar Creek.

At the battle of Opequon Mr. Streeter was hit twice. He was on his horseback when during the struggle became partially disabled and under his right arm. A bullet struck that and about the same time he lost the sole of his left shoe, due entirely to another bullet. The bullet that struck the horseback he preserved as a memento of his first engagement.

For six months Mr. Streeter was under detail as one of a special guard at the provost general's office in Washington, where his regiment did duty for a long time in the capacity of provost guard. The regiment, with others, was dispatched on boats to join the Red River campaign and was on the Daniel Webster for 26 days before New Orleans was reached. On July 8, 1865, the regiment was discharged from the service at Savannah, Ga., and sent back to Concord, where the men were paid and finally discharged.

Mr. Streeter returned to Hinsdale, where he made his home until continued ill health forced him to give up farming and he moved to Brattleboro over five years ago. He married in Wilmington, March 12, 1868, Miss Lizzie E. Dix. There are six children: Arthur W. of Lowell, Mass.; Franklin L. of Los Angeles, Cal.; Della E., wife of Frank O. Day of Winchester, N. H.; Daisy F., wife of Bert McDonald of Hinsdale, and Lyman F. and Hoyt P., both of Brattleboro.

He leaves one brother and four sisters, all residents of North Hinsdale: Harry, Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. Hattie Darling, Mrs. Augusta Chandler and Mrs. Maria Crowninshield.

Mrs. Streeter while in North Hinsdale was so busy and so far removed from the activities of a Grand Army post that he did not join one until after his removal to Brattleboro. Here he immediately became a member of Sedgwick post. He was soon elected senior vice commander, but owing to ill health was unable actively to engage in the work of the post.

Mr. Streeter had been a member of the First Baptist church of Brattleboro 50 years and if he had lived until March 12 he and Mrs. Streeter would have been married 50 years. He was a man of high ideals, was devoted to his home circle and lived a Christian life.

Step Lively! Corns Quit with "Gets-It"

The Great Corn-Loosener of the Age—Never Fails—Painless.

Watch my step? What's the use? I go alone "right side up without care," even with corns, because I use "Gets-It," the painless, oil-free, banana-peel corn remover. I tried other ways before, until I was blue in the face and red in the toes. No more for me.

Corns Simply Can't Stop Us, We Use "Gets-It" Use "Gets-It." It never fails. Touch any corn or corn with a drop of "Gets-It" and "Gets-It" does the rest. It's a relief to be able to stop cutting corns, making them bleed, wrapping them up like packages and using sticky tape and salves. It removes any corn clear and clean, leaving the toe as smooth as your palm. You can wear those new shoes without pain, dance and be frisky on your feet. It's great to use "Gets-It."

"Gets-It" is sold at all druggists (you need pay no more than 25 cents a bottle) or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Obituary.

Imah Bennett Palmer was born May 4, 1835, in Dickerson, N. Y., the eldest son of Elijah and Adeline Bennett Palmer. When two and one-half years old he came with his parents to Washington to live, where he had always resided, except for a few years which he spent in Massachusetts.

When a young man, Mr. Palmer was twice married. In March, 1859, he was married to Emily Downing. Two children were born to them—Frank Leslie and Ada L., who died in infancy. Emily died in 1874. Frank Leslie resided in Montana and has spent several weeks with his father, having left for his home in the west only the Thursday before the latter's death. Nov. 24, 1881, he was married to Lucina Fitts, who died Oct. 9, 1917. Of this union two children were born—Charles D. and George W., and there are also six grandchildren. Charles has always resided at home and tenderly cared for his aged parents, and George resided on an adjoining farm. Mr. Palmer also leaves one brother, Henry, of Graniteville, and a sister, Mrs. Belle Craige, who has lived at the Palmer home since the death of Mrs. Palmer.

Mr. Palmer had been in declining health for the past five months and for the past six weeks he was tenderly cared for by his nurse, Mrs. Leon Lord, to whom much credit is due.

Funeral services were held Monday, Feb. 11, at the Universalist church at 1 p. m. The bearers were Ernest Palmer, Allie Palmer, Ned Craige and M. W. Hyland. Burial was in the family lot in the village cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the relatives and friends, and the nurses, especially Mrs. L. B. Lord, who so tenderly and faithfully cared for our dear father in his last sickness, which we all appreciated.

F. D. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Palmer and family.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is given for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapiesin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; both gases and acids eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened, and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops fermentation and acidity and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing—Adv.
